WARNING

- Using the CO₂ inflator continuously, make sure to wait 20 seconds between cartridges for the rubber nozzle inside the inflator head to return to its original position. Otherwise, a gas leak may occur and prevent proper inflations.
- Tighten the CO₂ cartridges before using CO₂ Inflation function, loosen to 5 so it can leave proper pressure and may reactivate.
- Do not renew CO₂ cartridges if it is still charged with gas. Completely discharge the CO₂ cartridges before removal.
- When opening the CO₂ cartridges, point the head inflator away from yourself and others.
- AFTER CO₂ inflator may get injury from air pressure.
- Do not expose the CO₂ cartridges to heat, or stores at temperatures above 71°F (22°C), or stores in enclosed vehicles.
- Make sure not to place the inflator head inside the water.
- The basket (7) when the inflator head was removed (9) after inflating the gas, DO NOT try to store the inflator head until full charged until the inflator head is 100% charged.
- Keep out of reach of children.
- Do not contact with water for a longer period.
- Leave the inflator head out of reach of children.

NOTICE

- Please place the inflator head in the basket (7) after inflating the gas.
- The inflator head will be stored in the basket (7) after inflating the gas.
- Keep the CO₂ cartridges away from children.
- The basket (7) is not recommended for storing the CO₂ cartridges.
- Do not place the inflator head in a high or low temperature environment.
- Do not place the inflator head in a wet environment.
- Do not place the inflator head in a dry environment.

NOTICE

- Do not store the inflator head in a high or low temperature environment.
- Do not store the inflator head in a wet environment.
- Do not store the inflator head in a dry environment.
- Do not place the inflator head in a high or low temperature environment.
- Do not place the inflator head in a wet environment.
- Do not place the inflator head in a dry environment.